

AT THE EXPOSITION.

FACTS AND INCIDENTS OF THE DAY NOTED.

Great Progress Made on the Grounds.—A Talk with Director-General Kimball on the Prospects—An Exhibition that Would be a Credit to Any Nation of the World.

Yesterday at the exposition grounds was notable for nothing except great progress in cleaning up the grounds and getting the exhibits in order. Additional car loads of freight came in almost every hour and the exposition has now the bulk of it on hand.

To-morrow morning will show the exposition in very good condition and almost complete as far as the general visitor is concerned. Of course it will receive finishing touches for a week to come, and one new building which is yet unfinished will be completed and filled. This is the building devoted to carriages and similar exhibits, but for all practical purposes THE CONSTITUTION announces that on to-morrow morning visitors may prepare to leave their homes and come to Atlanta to see the exposition. About Wednesday or Thursday there will be little left to see that is not already in order. This is the estimate of the officers in charge of the position of exhibits and we believe it is a correct one. The excursion from the northwest, which arrives on Wednesday, will be the first special crowd that is to come, and there is every reason to hope that from to-morrow morning on the attendance, the exposition, and everything connected with it will be in better shape than was thought possible by those who attended on the opening day.

A Talk with Mr. Kimball.

A representative of THE CONSTITUTION met Director-General Kimball at the grounds on yesterday and asked him what he thought of the show.

"It will be a grand success," he said, "in point of attendance as well as of exhibitions."

"You are not discouraged, then, at the slowness of the crowd this week?"

"Not a particle. The crowd is larger than I expected to see, and larger than I wished to see. If I could by mere command have 20,000 visitors at the grounds to-day I would ask them to stay away. I feel every time I see a visitor enter the gates, and I recognize the fact that we are not ready, and that the exposition does not do itself justice at present. It is the greatest tribute possible to the character and scope of our exposition that even in its rough and crude state it impresses visitors with the fact that it will be a great show, and that even those who see it now leave generally with a determination to come again when it is in shape."

"When do you think that the crowd will commence coming?"

"I think we have seen the smallest days already. The crowd in the city is gradually increasing now. On Wednesday we have the first excursion from the northwest, and I shall look for a considerable crowd before the week is out. The main crowd, and by this I mean the overwhelming rush, will not be here before November 1st. I should say that the biggest two weeks of the exposition would be from the first to the middle of November. Of course the government's day will attract a great many."

"You hear encouraging reports from all quarters."

"Absolutely without exception. Take your own case and mine. We probably know personally five hundred people that we are certain will attend the exposition before it is over, and not one of these five hundred personally known to us has come yet. You might extend this and find that every man who is expecting friends knows that they will not arrive for a week or two yet. I saw a gentleman this morning from Nashville, who said that a large crowd would be here from that city, but that they were not coming for a week or ten days yet. Why even Mr. Atkinson, Mr. Inman, Mr. Tamm, General Bussey and the men who have been the strong backers of the exposition, have none of them come yet. The centennial was a failure for the first two months of its life, and it will be a very great thing for us to get through with only a week of its attendance. I was never so certain that the crowd would be overwhelming as I am now."

"You are satisfied with the exposition?"

"More than satisfied. I am brought intimately into connection with old exhibitors who have attended exhibitions in this country and in Europe for the past twenty years, and their testimony is absolutely without a break in favor of our exposition. They say that it is at least three times—times bigger than they expected to find it, and they are satisfied in every sense of the word, and predict a grand and complete success. You just say to the people for me that I was never so sure about the exposition as I am now, that we have had our hardest day and that everything in the future is bright, and I know better about this than any one living. I don't sleep or eat or drink without thinking about the exposition and talking about it, and I say to them that in less than thirty days it will have passed in point of attendance far beyond hopeful expectations, just as it has already in point of exhibition."

On the Grounds.

Yesterday there was a good number of visitors on the grounds, and many of them came from the round of exhibits. The visitors came from all parts of the country, and though there is not a great crowd here just now there has probably never been such a representative lot of people in Atlanta. Most of those who are here intend to remain for a week or two and will see the exposition at its very best. All the white new visitors are coming in every day.

Yesterday and last night the passenger trains on the Air-Line and Western and Atlantic railroads came in with full loads.

The hotels in the city are well filled. The Exposition and Encampment hotels near the grounds are fast accumulating guests, when they seem to be coming in from the city.

The department of public comfort is busy to prepare places for all who may come when the crowds go thicker. Distinguished visitors from all parts of the country are expected at various stages of the exposition.

THE EXCURSIONS.

One thing which will bring great crowds here are the special excursions which are coming from various points. Railroad rates are very low at all times, but there will be from several cities a series of excursions which will be especially low, and these will bring great crowds. The first of the series will leave Cincinnati Wednesday and come through on the fastest time ever made between the two cities. Round trip tickets will be $10. Several hundred people will arrive in Atlanta Wednesday night from the queen city of the west.

A week later there is to be an excursion from Baltimore and Richmond with as low rates and as big a crowd.

Not a week will pass during the exposition without some of these great excursions coming. The regular rates are low enough to attract thousands of visitors to the south who never came before. The great currents of travel to Florida will be turned by Atlanta to take in the exposition. This element will add greatly to the crowds. Next Thursday will be one of the first great days, and after that there will steadily be a good attendance, with now and then a repetition of such an occasion.

THE NEWSPAPER MEN are active, and every day send to the leading journals of America accounts of what transpires in Atlanta.

It has been said that there is more news sent from Atlanta than from any other town of like size in America. This is certainly true now, for every night the wires are kept hot with the thousands of words telegraphed concerning our big show. The correspondents are also carefully writing letters descriptive of the city and the exposition.

Atlanta, as well as the papers, are to be congratulated on the character and ability of the men they have sent to write up this enterprise. They are men who are established in the profession, and whatever their politics, are gentlemen whose views are fair and whose feelings are in sympathy with the industrial development of the south.

From Maine to California the universal tone of the press has been one of kindness to Atlanta since the exposition opened. Several of the correspondents now here will remain during the entire term of the exposition, while others will return in a few days.

Arrangements will be made, however, for a steady and reliable representation of all the great papers from now to the end of December.

is going along remarkably fast. Yesterday it showed wonderful progress over the appearance of Friday. Director-General Kimball is still of the opinion that in two weeks all will be perfect and in ten days the show will be under way.

The work is being well done. All the buildings will be not only complete and comfortable but even ornate. The exhibitors are vying with each other in the elegance and beauty of the preparations they are making to show off their great varieties of goods. No expense is being spared in any department to make the exposition, when complete, as handsome and perfect as the most critical visitor could desire to see it.

The art and industrial hall is nearly complete. Already a great number of exhibits are in it, and by the middle of the present week it will be one of the most attractive places on the grounds.

The railroad building is also fast getting into shape, and will soon show how perfect it will be as a representation of the riches of the south and west in minerals and woods. The view of the grounds yesterday was very cheering. Monday will show still further progress, and by the time the show opens next Saturday afternoon, this great exposition will be so complete as to be worthy of the closest observation.

An Interview With Mr. Ryckman.

WHAT THE SECRETARY OF THE EXPOSITION SAYS ABOUT EXHIBITORS.

A representative of THE CONSTITUTION called on Secretary Ryckman at his office in the main building on yesterday and had the following interview:

"We have heard constantly of discontented exhibitors who have withdrawn their exhibits and quit the exposition from one cause and another and it has been hinted that a great proportion of the exhibitors had ordered their goods sent home without opening them. What about this?"

"It is absolutely without foundation. I am in possession of all the facts, and I say to you positively and distinctly that but two single exhibitors have withdrawn their exhibits. To make this statement more specific I give the names of the exhibitors. One is H. Dudley Coleman & Co., of New Orleans, and the other is the Nipson Mercantile Company, of New York. The reason for the withdrawal of the first was that he had an exhibit of grist mills and machinery was that they understood that their goods would be hauled to Atlanta and back to New Orleans free of freight charges. When they learned that there was $174 freight charged, they ordered the goods shipped back at once. The other, the second exhibitor, who has Japanese goods, withdrew on account of some quibble about his space. The place occupied by both these firms has been filled already and with more interesting exhibits than those that first occupied it."

"Then only two exhibitors have withdrawn?"

"Only two, and that two the two named. Their places have been filled and we have here at least one hundred applications for space that we are literally unable to fill. The demand for space is simply overwhelming, as it always has been, and every inch of the space in every building will be occupied."

"The demand for space is still active?"

"Yes, sir, and a premium is now being offered for the space already taken by exhibitors. If an exhibitor is a little late in getting his goods in, there are a dozen applicants who are in the hope that he will fail to come and they can take his place. The exhibition will be filled to overflowing and we could easily fill two more buildings if we had them. So this is the whole story of discontented exhibitors."

"You may say in addition," said Mr. Ryckman, "that all the exhibitors are pleased and enthusiastic and the exposition has no stronger friends than they are."

As Affecting Business.

"Increased," I should say, "and a great number of our merchants are in reply to the question of THE CONSTITUTION reporter as to whether his business had increased with the opening of the exposition. 'Yes, sir, my sales are over 75 per cent. above the same time last year. Everybody seems to be buying. Hats, collars, cuffs, fancy ties and underwear are in great demand. Of course we expect to do a larger business than usual, but the orders are a larger stock in consequence; but the sales have gone far beyond our expectations, and if it keeps on as it has begun we will run out before the stock is half over. I have already duplicated my stock almost entire in an order day before yesterday, and, as our sales have been confined to the local trade, I have no idea that I will be able to serve my customers with my additional stock when they come. Visitors is considered. Yes, the exposition is a grand affair, and this is not the only reason that we will get benefits from it."

A visit to several leading dry goods and grocery houses disclosed a similar condition of trade. Our merchants, though ordering largely in excess of stock, agree that the trade results of the exposition are much beyond their expectations, and that their bills will have to be duplicated to supply the increased trade. Family groceries are especially in demand and in this business particularly great activity is noticed. Prices range somewhat higher, but this is regarded as a natural consequence, and is not remarked.

Facts Not Generally Known.

The enormous strides made by this country in all kinds of manufactures during the past few years, has been so rapid that consumers generally have not been able to follow—consequently most people are not aware where the goods that they wear come from or where they are made.

To illustrate this point, the manufacturers of Clark's O N T spool cotton take this opportunity of informing the public that all the leading branches of spool cotton, known to the American people are either altogether, or in greater part made in this country, and the more universally this fact is known, the more it will be appreciated by the people.

The great and varied experience of the manufacturers of Clark's O N T spool cotton, both in Europe and America, have led them to the conclusion that the threads made at their factory in Newark, N. J., are in every respect equal if not superior to those made by their house in Paisley, Scotland, and they are proud to announce the fact that America, to-day, ahead of the old world in the manufacture of spool cotton.

The manufacturers of Clark's O N T spool cotton again extend a cordial invitation to the public to come and see their extraordinary machinery in motion, and their magnificent show cases on exhibition a detailed notice of which will be found in another column.

This celebrated thread is wound on white spools and a full assortment can now be found at retail at John Keely, Chamberlin, Boynton & Co., David H. Dougherty, W. H. Broderick, W. S. Gramling, Hook & Smith, and others. And at wholesale by all the leading dry goods and notion houses in Atlanta.

Brown's Exposition Hotel.

One of the features of the exposition is the management of the great Exposition hotel, with its capacity for one thousand guests, under control of Mr. Phil Brown, the genial and popular landlord. Mr. Brown has wisely concluded not to open his hotel formally until everything was in readiness and the first day could be a success. He has tied up the hotel with electric lights, has it decorated in the very handsomest style with telegraphic facilities,

He has his own ice house and billiard rooms, as well as ball rooms, etc. Appreciating the fact that the great need of the exposition would be attentive service at table, he has imported at large cost a trained corps of thirty English servants, having engaged them through an agent in London, who selected them from the best hotels in that city. These men have been training his native help and getting everything in shape. This is not an evidence of the thoroughness and care with which Mr. Brown has organized every department. He has engaged the best of hands, and will have music in and around the hotel every day and night during the exposition. It will be interesting for visitors to know that the Exposition hotel stands in the center of a field of battle, on which hundreds were killed during the war. Right in front, and to each side are rifle pits, fortifications and bankworks which show the form and front of war. In one of these rifle pits the other day Mr. Brown in digging up an avenue found an Enfield rifle that had mouldered in the ground so long that it fell to pieces when he lifted it. The hammer of the rifle was at full cock and the sights were set for a shot at about 400 yards. Doubtless the brave fellow who cocked the rifle and aimed it was killed before he had time to pull the trigger. There are great many interesting relics of the war to be found in the locality of the hotel.

On next Tuesday night Mr. Brown will have a grand formal opening of the Exposition hotel. The electric lights, the music, the dining rooms and all will be in good shape and the occasion will be a brilliant and interesting one. Mr. Brown has tendered an invitation to the press, visiting and local, to make citizens of the opening of the hotel, and we have no doubt that a large crowd will be present. We learn that the Cincinnati excursionists who arrive on next Wednesday have engaged 250 rooms at the Exposition hotel, so that it will get a good boom on the first day of its opening.

A Contrast of Weather.

While we luxuriate under the most genial influence of our incomparable climate, seemingly of its best behavior as in sympathy with the exhibition, we have invited the world to witness, there comes this early from the icy latitude of the extreme northeast the announcement, in a letter to Director-General Kimball, dated Norway, Maine, October 8th, that, "As I write, at 7:30 o'clock, a.m., the thermometer stands at 28°. Ice formed at my pump strong enough to hold a pull of water suspended. Late corn is frozen in the field, and vegetables generally are dis-trought. Heavy furs and wraps are already in demand." This appears strange to us who are still promenading in the immaculate paraphernalia of summer—white vests, straw hats and linen ulsters. This one single item of climate will insure a no inconsiderable part of the attendance at the exposition, for the annual exodus of northern visitors to our southern winter health resorts will include Atlanta in the route, and many will no doubt remain here, as the sanitary inducements of this immediate section are as advantageous as any.

Enslavement.

Yesterday Mr. Mark Hardin was busily engaged at the exposition grounds filling two silos with ensilage. These silos have been constructed by the exposition company solely for the benefit of the farming public, and the manipulation of forage crops, which is now going on, will afford an interesting part of the exposition. One is a model silo and is bricked up and cemented, while the other is plain, and the walls are the natural clay with a coating of cement. Mr. Hardin had an engine and cutter running yesterday cutting up potato vines, sorghum, pea vines, rag weeds, etc., with which the silos were being filled. When full there will be twenty-five tons of the ensilage. A CONSTITUTION reporter asked Mr. Hardin how much it would take to keep a horse a day. He replied:

"It will take about sixty pounds per day for a horse, and we will have it fed to stock right here during the three months, as it will be ready in a few days."

"When will Dr. Bailey, the great ensilage man be here?"

"The last of this month."

"This stuff," continued the reporter, "looks like a sort of a chow chow. I guess stock takes kindly to it."

"There is nothing better; everything likes it. If we had a little pepper and vinegar we could eat some of it ourselves."

Exhibitors at Work.

The following exhibitors are at a distance yesterday had their machinery at work in the mechanics division, and were turning out their fabrics: J & P Coats's spool cotton works, from England. Willamette spool cotton company, of New York. Clark's O N T spool cotton machinery. Willamette linen company, New York.

Washburn & Moon, of Worcester, Mass, steel barbed fencing.

W. H. Phelps, of New York, rose candy manufactory established in Columbus, Ga. in 1858.

E. Jenckes & Co., Pawtucket, R. I., cotton, rope and twine, etc.

W. H. Bitterorth & Son, Philadelphia, warp drying, sizing and finishing machinery.

Gandy cotton belt company, Baltimore.

The Exposition and the Hotels.

The report of THE CONSTITUTION met Director-General Kimball, Treasurer Sam Inman and Dr. Spaulding of the executive committee, in consultation about hotel rates.

The director general remarked as the reporter came up: "These prices will satisfy the public and I am glad to know that the Kimball house has met the committee squarely. For there is no use denying the fact that the hotels and the exposition are closely allied, and a good show and cheap rates at the hotels will win."

At the same time he handed the reporter the following schedule of prices adopted by the Kimball house, to which he had just referred.

Good rooms, first and second floor, occupied by one person, $1. When occupied by two persons, $1.50 each. Single rooms third floor occupied by one person, $1 per day; by two, $1.50 each. Single room, 4th floor, occupied by single person, $1 per day; by two, $1.50 each. Single room, 5th floor, occupied by one person, $1; by two, $1.50 each. 4th and 5th floors have some large rooms with 1 or 5 beds in each. When a party take one of these the charge will be $2 to each person.

DUKE OF DURHAM

CIGARETTES.

SMOKING TOBACCO

It has been stated by some that Cigarette smoking is a very injurious habit, because most of the goods now on the market are adulterated with poisonous drugs and the close competition drives the manufacturers to using cheap and common paper for Wrappers, which we admit will, in time, injure any man.

We have started the manufacture of Cigarettes with the intention not to compete with others in price, but to give the FINEST AND PUREST CIGARETTES THAT CAN BE MADE and let the smoker pay what is necessary to produce such an article. We feel confident you will uphold us in this. We don't pretend that our goods are cheaper than others, but we do say that they are THE BEST on the market and are guaranteed to be free from any adulteration whatever and rolled in the finest imported French Rice Paper, thus giving a pure, healthy, enjoyable smoke, and which can be inhaled with impunity.

Great Bargains.
We would call public attention to the mammoth stock now shown by our enterprising merchant, John Ryan. Every class of goods known to the dry goods trade, can be found within his establishment, and the wide spread fame of his "low prices" is proudly upheld by the low figures of his present stock. Every article that goes to produce a bargain, and we never enter this palace dry goods house and examine the stock of goods but that we are astonished by the wonderful price at which they are sold. It is certainly the place for the best goods at the lowest prices. The present stock of silks and fine dress goods for sale is of the kind ever brought to Atlanta, and no one, however handsome the dress goods they may desire, or how gorgeous the silks they may wish to purchase, can fail to find in this department the goods that will meet with their hearty approbation. Mr. Ryan has a very large stock of blankets, comforts, sheeting and private ENTERTAINMENT, which he is disposing of at fabulously low prices. Those who desire to purchase this class of goods can find no better place than the establishment of John Ryan.

An exceedingly large and fine collection of laces, headed and plain, ornamental trimmings, passementerie, etc., can now be found in his great notion department.

In fact every class of goods desired is now offered by Mr. Ryan and we would advise all to give Mr. Ryan a call if they wish the best goods in the market at the lowest prices.

We are pleased to see Mr Israel Putnam has returned to the city, and is now at his quarters in the Kimball. He was seriously and painfully hurt in the railroad smash-up on the Vicksburg and Meridian railroad, in Mississippi, on the 16th September, and will be laid up for some time to come, so Dr W F Westmoreland thinks.

"John Keely, the Leader of Low Prices."
Comes to the front again to-day, with notice of fine shoes, etc., in addition to his princely advertisement of dry goods, etc. Keely is a genius. His efforts in business are made in so legitimate a manner and so clearly open to a thorough inspection that the most sceptical will be convinced that it is to their interest to trade with him. He is a most accommodating merchant, and one who fully understands the wants of the people. His black cashmeres are making a great furor amongst the ladies—and they know all about cashmeres—his walking jackets and cloaks are something wonderful, and his ladies' underwear is one of the most inviting stocks ever offered in Georgia in that line. Be sure to read his three notices in today's issue.

JOHN KEELY'S
GREAT SPECIALTIES

FOR THE COTTON EXPOSITION SEASON!

Realizing the fact that with the great influx of visitors which the Exposition assures, will come a greatly increased demand for the leading classes of Goods pertaining to the Dry Goods trade, the writer has made extraordinary preparations to supply the same; and having been fortunate enough to secure several large lots of goods at extraordinary low prices, it is his determination to flood the State of Georgia with the greatest bargains ever offered in this line. First comes

CLOAKS! CLOAKS! CLOAKS! CLOAKS!

Twenty thousand dollars worth of Cloaks! The Largest Stock of Cloaks, Jackets and Ulsters south of Philadelphia!
I have Cloaks for $2.50 each!
I have Cloaks at $50 each!
I have Cloaks at every intermediate price!
I have Cloaks by the thousand!

NOT ONE OF THEM WAS PURCHASED IN THE REGULAR WAY!
One lot was obtained from an importer who, having Goods in the Custom House, was compelled to sacrifice some in order to raise money to pay duties in the balance. Other lots, bought first in one way, then in another, but all at a sacrifice, constitute at once the largest and cheapest lot of Cloaks ever offered in Georgia!

I can sell you a $2.50 Cloak for $2, and then make a good profit!
I can sell you a $5 Cloak for $3.50, and then make all the profit I want! An $8 Cloak for $5! A $10 Cloak for $6, and so on to the end of the list! A $15 Cloak for $10, etc., etc.

Justice to yourself, Reader, demands that you investigate this superb line of Goods after you have seen Cloaks elsewhere, but invariably BEFORE YOU BUY!

You will be delighted by doing so! You will be suited by doing so! You will save money by doing so! You will remember the Bargains I now offer in them eclipse everything previously shown!

Surprising Bargains in Misses Cloaks! A full and superb line, numbering some 1,800 garments.

I state unhesitatingly that I am prepared to show from THREE TO SIX TIMES as many Cloaks as any other house South!

700 Ladies' Cloth Ulsters, in all styles, fine goods, half price!

BLACK CASHMERES!

Having concluded highly satisfactory arrangements with an importer of Black Cashmeres, I now offer to the public the largest, most complete line of the desirable class of goods to be found in Georgia.

TAKE NOTICE.—I am responsible for the color of every piece of Black Cashmeres which will be sold over my counters this season, which means that if a piece should prove to be a bad color, to lose its brilliancy, etc., I WILL REPLACE IT WITH A NEW PIECE.

I have often been laughed at by competitors for offering such guarantees, but I never do so except the case justifies it, and I NEVER FAIL TO RESPOND WHEN CALLED ON TO MAKE IT GOOD.

I have both Jet and Blue Black Cashmeres, and customers can have either by asking for which they prefer. I recommend the Blue Black for beauty and durability.

30 pieces Black all wool Cashmeres, 25 cents yard, sold last fall at 30 cents. 25 pieces Black all wool Cashmeres, 40 cents yard, sold last fall at 50 cents.

32 pieces Black all wool Cashmeres, 30 cents yard, sold last fall at 40 cents. 29 pieces Black all wool Cashmeres, 60 cents yard, sold last fall at 70 cents.

40 pieces of the best 70 cents Black all wool Cashmeres in America! Particular attention is called to this grade of goods. I am determined to sell a beauty at this price! 65 pieces fine grade Black Cashmeres, proportionately cheap! Everything made almost in colored Cashmeres, at a full range of prices will be found in this highly attractive stock. I will guarantee to beat ANYBODY'S sample of Black Cashmeres, no matter whether it comes from this place or from New York!

SILKS! SILKS! SILKS! SILKS! SILKS! SILKS!

In this department have three times as large a stock as ever before. Hardly anything can be asked for which I cannot show. 50 pieces Black and colored dress silks, embracing everything possibly needed. 30 pieces Black and colored Vests, all shades, etc. Black Dress Silks 40 cents, 50 cents, 55 cents, 60 cents, $1.10, $1.25, $1.35, $1.50, and up to the very finest goods at $3.00 yard. Colored Silks 50 cents, 60 cents, 65 cents, 70 cents, 75 cents, 80 cents, and $1 per yard—an immense line. More Antique Striped Trimming and Dress Silks. A superb line Black and colored Broaded Silks in every possible color, quality and design. The largest line of short navy, blue striped and plain silk blouses ever offered in Atlanta.

DRESS GOODS! DRESS GOODS! DRESS GOODS!

This department will be found to be unusually attractive, embracing as it does, everything from dress goods at 10 cents yard up to goods at $3. All the new Plaided Dress Goods, Cloth Dress Goods, French Plaid and colored stripes, novelties in beige goods, beautiful soft, limp fabrics on all the grades, Brown, Bronzes, Blue, etc. In fact, this department is perfect. In the attention bestowed upon the purchase of dress goods, equal value has been taken with the cheap, the medium priced and the fine goods, so that no matter whether a customer wishes Dress Goods at 10 cents, 15 cents, 20 cents, 25 cents, 30 cents, 35 cents, 40 cents, or the very finest goods, a magnificent assortment in all of these lines will here be found.

Beautiful line of Mourning Dress Goods, both for deep and slight mourning, including many new fabrics never before offered here. A splendid variety of Crapes, Mourning Fines, etc.

HOSIERY AND MERINO UNDERWEAR, ETC.

The most complete stock of Hosiery ever opened in this house, is now offered for sale, embracing almost everything which could be suggested in that class of goods, and forming a list entirely too voluminous to list here.

SPECIAL BARGAINS!

Ladies' Bleached and Unbleached Clocked Red Ballbrigan Hose 2x pair, goods which always brought 50c before. Ladies' Merino Undervests 35c, 50c, 75c, 80c, all sizes made. Gents' Merino Undershirts and Drawers at every conceivable price and in unlimited variety as to quality, style, etc. The largest and best lines of Ladies' and Gents' Socks, Merino Shirts and Drawers ever offered in Georgia. Child's Vest and Drawers separate all grades. Child's Undie Suits, Vests and Drawers attached, all grades. In fact to attempt to particularize the goods in this Hosiery stock, were simple folly; for the entire paper could be filled with its detail.

Perhaps never has anything been accomplished in Georgia equal to SHIRTS! SHIRTS! SHIRTS! SHIRTS! SHIRTS! SHIRTS!

KEELY'S SHIRT BOOM!

It is now several months in existence, and is still in full blast, sales increasing every week; and no wonder it should be. Each enormous fresh delivery offers to the public better value than the former.

THE SHIRT BOOM

was based, and is being continued and greatly developed on the principle of

STERLING VALUE AND NO TRICKS!

JUST OPENED

3,000 Men's good Linen Bosom Shirts, 50c each, worth 75c. 3,700 Men's Fine Linen Bosom Reinforced Shirts, 65c each, worth $1. 1,500 Men's Superb Shirts! Highest type of cut and work, 75c each. This 75c shirt is a popular marvel. Thousand of Men's Laundried white and colored Shirts! Thousands of Boy's Laundried and Unlaundried white and colored Shirts! Everything possible in Shirts! Nothing but "bargains" in Shirts! Nobody has any excuse now for appearing in Linen. The very least suited—for John Keely will sell a fine new shirt for very little more than the cost of washing an old one. The one-half of 10c "shirt matter" has not been told! Call and examine them! That is the way to test the facts!

HOUSEHOLD GOODS! HOUSEHOLD GOODS! HOUSEHOLD GOODS!

Superior lines of Sheeting, Napkins, Towels, Blankets, Bed Spreads, Comforts, and many other household goods, are now offered for sale. Merchants are buying them, hotel and boarding house keepers are buying them. The public generally is buying them. They are going out fast. The prices are low. The qualities are good. For these reasons they sell freely.

SHOES! SHOES! SHOES!

400 cases Boots and shoes in the act of being received just now. The stock embraces full lines of the superb Shoes always to be found here. Every pair arranged. No shoddy. No trash. No paper sales amongst them.

LADIES' CORSETS, UNDERWEAR, ETC.

The best 25c, 50c, 60c, 75c and $1 Corset in the United States at retail, will be found in this stock. Finer grade corsets in great variety. A superb stock. In Ladies' Underwear, the largest line in the State is carried. The styles are quite uncommon, and the prices much lower than customers expect to find. This is almost the universal testimony of the Ladies.

A NOVELTY.

I have just purchased a superb line of Ladies' Hand Embroidered Underwear—the work done in the convents of France, on beautiful genuine French Percale, the beauty and cheapness of which garments cannot fail to render them exceedingly popular.

I have marked them cheap, so as to introduce them as favorably as possible, and I promise the Ladies quite a treat in their inspection. Be sure to call and examine the largest and best stock of goods ever offered in Atlanta, at
